NEW COACH COLLIN LANE LEADS GUSTINE REDS

BY MICHAEL MARTIN
Correspondent

As the 2022 high school football season approaches, the Gustine Reds squad will have first year head coach Collin Lane at the helm.

Lane takes over a Reds team that finished with a 3-6 record last season, finishing in sixth place in the Southern League Conference. He brings with him five years of previous coaching experience with four years at Modesto

Christian High School and one year at Delhi.

Lane said, "If our squad can stay healthy and keep up with their schoolwork to avoid eligibility problems, they can compete for a league championship."

Gustine will rely on several returning starters from last year's team to help improve on their 3-6 record. Alejandro Lugo will lead the Reds on offense, returning at the quarterback position for Gustine. Lugo will have All-Southern-

League receiver Alex Ramirez to throw the ball too, along with returning starter Arturo Alapizco.

The Reds feature an outstanding tight end in Julian Nessi and will return All-Southern- League running back Gio Torres, who will be joined in the Gustine backfield by two-way starter Aquiles Gonzalez and Junior Zander Leyva.

Sophomore nose guard Isaiah Prado will anchor the defensive line for Gustine, along with Michael Ramirez, Tama Nunfolau and Angel Toquillas. The linebacking group will return Jose Garibaldi, Nessi and Gonzalez. The defensive backfield features returning starters Gilbert Sotelo and Alex Ramirez.

Lane will rely heavily on All-Southern-League returner Gio Torres to be the inspirational leader of the 2022 Reds, as they attempt to improve on their 2021 football season.

PACHECO PANTHERS

PACHECO WILL BE FOOTBALL 'ROAD WARRIORS' THIS YEAR

By MICHAEL MARTIN

In high school football this fall, the definition of “Road Warriors” is the best way to describe the 2022 Pacheco Panthers football team from Los Banos.

Following a first week bye, Pacheco will open their 2022 Western Athletic Conference schedule with four consecutive games away from Veterans Stadium in Los Banos.

Head coach Jeremy Siemiller has opted to play some very strong teams for his non-league games, traveling first to Ceres to play Central Valley High School, followed by a trip to Seaside and then facing the Tracy Bulldogs.

Coach Siemiller said, “I want our team to face some really tough competition in the pre-season, just to see how we stack up against them.”

The Panthers were a very young team in 2021, and their record showed it. Pacheco compiled a 3-7 overall record with a 2-5 mark in the WAC Conference. They hope to improve on that record in 2022, relying on 22 returning players, 12 of whom were starters from last year.

Junior Abel Bravo, a varsity starter since his freshman year, will be a strong force on both sides of the ball, as a starting linebacker on defense, a running back and a part-time quarterback on the offense.

The Panthers turn the quarterback reins over to first year player, Aiden Huerta.

Huerta will have a veteran offensive line in front of him. Three-year starter Caven Hale anchors the line at center for Pacheco.

When asked about the 2022 team, Hale said, “I don’t know how the whole season will play out, but I do know that we will win the game on Oct. 28, (Los Banos) at our place.”

Gabriel Escobar and Owen King return at the tackle positions for Pacheco, and along with guard Alex Saurez. Huerta will have a pair of very talented tight ends in Manvir Gakhil and C.J. Riley, as well as, receivers Daniel Scott and Jesse Garcia to throw the ball to this year.

Bravo leads the Panther defense from his middle linebacker position, and he ▶▶

The MaXPreps football portal has picked the Panthers to finish in sixth place in the upcoming WAC Conference, but coach Siemiller feels his squad has a very good chance of finishing much higher in the league standings in 2022.

LOS BANOS TIGERS

HIGH HOPES FOR TIGERS VARSITY FOOTBALL

BY MICHAEL MARTIN

Coming off last year's 6-4 record in the Western Athletic Conference season, the Los Banos Tiger varsity football team heads into the 2022 campaign with high hopes.

MaXPrep Sports information portal predicts the Tigers to finish in second place in the WAC conference, behind the Ceres Bulldogs. But this year's team feels that it has an excellent chance to finish in the top spot in the league.

Its expectations are built around the 21 returning members of last season's play-off squad, with 12 of them having been starters in 2021. Junior quarterback David Herrera returns to lead the offense. In seven starts at quarterback last year, Herrera threw for 992 yards and 17 touchdowns, while adding 563 yards rushing.

Herrera has a very talented group to throw to lead by All-WAC receiver, Aiden Barcellos who caught 18 passes, including 6 TDs. Mark Carreiro hauled in 16 passes with 5 TDs and Jamison Braniff caught 14 more for the Tigers. They will be joined by junior transfer student Evan Reboza and Senior Kayson Welch.

For Head Coach Dustin Caropreso, his big challenge on offense will be replacing the 1,213 rushing yards from All-WAC and Whittier College bound running back Adrian Ramirez. Caropreso and running backs coach John Painter have several possible backs in mind, including Isaiah Medina, Joel Alvarenga. Adan Salas, Cole Ramos and Mark Carreiro.

On defense, Los Banos will feature returning starters, Raymond Fernandez, Ignacio Morales, Ramos and Salas, ▶▶

In the defensive backfield, the Tigers return George Garcia, Jacob Magana along with Carreiro, Braniff and Medina and they will be joined by sophomore twins Byron and Yahir Zuniga. Jett Lindeman, a junior transfer student from Hilmar, will join Jamon Cannon, Salvador Garcia and Josiah Ojeda on the defensive line for the Tigers.

 Coach Caropreso will depend on players like Jackson Silva, Phillip Vanderpoel, Eddie Swett, Adam Aguilar and Bobby Rouge who are up from the junior varsity team to add depth to the 2022 roster.

DOS PALOS BRONCOS

DOS PALOS CELEBRATES 100 YEARS OF BRONCO FOOTBALL THIS SEASON

BY DAVID BORBOA
Westside Express

Fifth year Dos Palos High head football coach Rob Calvert is very excited.

Not because his Broncos are coming off a very successful 10-1 season.

Not because Dos Palos won another West Sierra League title.

Not because he has solid talent this year at the skill positions.

He's excited because this is the 100th anniversary of Bronco football.

The centennial celebration will kick off this Friday and the Broncos could not ask for a better opponent as they will host archival Los Banos in the annual "West-side War."

Kick-off is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at Frankian Field.

"With this being the 100th anniversary of Bronco football, it is going to be even more exciting than usual," Calvert noted.

Like other programs, the Broncos have been rebuilding from the Covid lockdown that saw participation in all sports go down. But Dos Palos is steadily building those numbers back up to good levels. Calvert said that there 30 players on the varsity roster and 26 on the junior varsity.

"The numbers are indeed rising after Covid, and going forward, I think they will get even better," Calvert said.

He pointed to the summer workout program as an example.

"We started up the "Bronco Pride Points" program again, and we got good participation in the weight room over the summer," Calvert said. "We played in four passing tournaments over the summer and did some midweek passing games against Los Banos, Firebaugh, and Mendota. We got some good work in during the summer and the participation was excellent."

Calvert said that he will be relying on the Bronco defense to anchor the team as the season starts, since they graduated four of their starting five offensive linemen from last season.

The Bronco defense will be led by third year varsity linebackers Julio Garcia and Hernan Hernandez. Linemen Caleb Sanchez and Felix Garcia will be anchoring the defensive line, and on the back end, Ruben Chavez and Elias Esquivel will be working to control the passing game.

Another player to watch on defense, accord to Calvert, will be freshman safety Jesus Bon.

"Bon will be our starting safety," said Calvert. "He is talented and the fastest player on our team. He will definitely be able to play with the big boys." Bon will also be handling the field goal duties.

"Our defense will be really strong," the coach added.

Anchoring the inexperienced offensive line this year will be Eric Henson and Adam Echavarria. They will have to give the skilled position players time to develop cohesiveness and experience.

Junior Peyton Van Worth will be the starting quarterback this year.

"Peyton is very talented. He throws a great ball, and with experience he will get better every game," said Calvert.

Drake Hennegan will be the starting tailback and the receiving corps of senior Mike Cantu and sophomore Sixto Ybarra will be Van Worth's main targets. Senior Will Montemurro will be the starting tight end/H back.

As usual, Frankian Field will be packed this Friday when head coach Dustin Caropresso brings his LB Tigers to town. Throw in the start of the 100th Anniversary activities, and it will definitely be an exciting year for Bronco football, said Calvert.

"It's going to be a great game, that's for sure," he explained. "The game can go either way. We should be ready. We definitely put in the work, and we will be ready to play."

NEW COACH JORGE SALDANA LEADS EAGLES

cedo and sophomore Anthony Mayo will be leading the trenches.

The Eagle defense returns four of its best defenders from last season in Fernandez, a linebacker, defense end Norberto Mendoza, Bautista at linebacker, and Leyva at safety.

“They will be the heart of our defense,” said Saldana.

Besides having a young, inexperienced team, the Eagles are also looking at a daunting pre-season schedule. Besides Reedley, Firebaugh will also face Templeton and Immanuel-Reedley, plus the always tough Fowler and Caruthers.

“Of course, it’s a pretty tough schedule, no doubt about it,” said Saldana. “But one of the good things is that all of our coaches are returning. There are not hardly any changes, and that’s a plus.”

BY DAVID BORBOA
Westside Express

Jorge Saldana has a daunting task ahead of him.

The first year Firebaugh High head football coach has only five seniors returning to this year’s squad. The 2020-21 Eagles saw 24 players graduate.

So, Saldana and his staff have a rebuilding job ahead of them, or as he puts it, “We’re reloading.”

Saldana takes over for Mason Rodman, who moved into the Firebaugh school district administration. But that doesn’t mean that Saldana is unfamiliar with the Eagle program. He graduated from Firebaugh High in 2011 and continued his education at Fresno State. He is in his sixth year of teaching Social Science at Firebaugh High. Also, he has coached football for the Eagles for 10 years, the last two serving as the head junior varsity coach.

The young coach definitely has a plan going into the season, which starts this Friday night when Firebaugh hosts Reedley.

“What we want to do is continue the culture that Coach Rodman built and have an environment that emphasizes building and molding these young players into men and be ready to compete,” he explained.

Firebaugh will have a roster of about 25 players each on varsity and junior varsity. They run a pro-style offense and will likely be a run-first offense.

“What we want is to get the ball to our playmakers, whether it’s run or pass. But right now, it will be run-heavy,” said the coach.

One of the reasons for that philosophy could be that the starting quarterback position is still up for grabs. It’s currently a three-way battle between Isaac Ceja, a sophomore, Sebastian Perez, a junior, and Manuel Bautista, a senior.

The backfield will be AJ Fernandez and freshman Ryan Luna. The main receiving target will be senior Isaiah Leyva.

The Firebaugh offensive line will be all new with no returning starters and minimal varsity experience. Junior Erik Sal-
